

Oman Investment Bank Participates in Oman–Iraq Business Meeting

Muscat, Oman: Oman Investment Bank took part in the Oman–Iraq Business Meeting, held as part of the official visit of Mohammed Shia’ Al Sudani, Prime Minister of the Republic of Iraq, to the Sultanate of Oman. The meeting served as a platform for senior officials and business leaders from both countries to review available investment opportunities and to discuss ways of strengthening bilateral cooperation across key sectors.

During the meeting, Oman Investment Bank reaffirmed its role as a trusted advisory partner in supporting economic collaboration between Oman and Iraq. The Bank reaffirmed its commitment to facilitating sustainable partnerships that support investors and contribute to the long-term growth of regional markets.

Commenting on the Bank’s participation, Mohamed Al Habsi, Acting Chief Executive Officer of Oman Investment Bank, said: “We are proud to participate in this meeting, reflecting the depth of relations between the Sultanate of Oman and the Republic of Iraq, and embodying a shared ambition to build sustainable economic partnerships that open new horizons for investors over the long term.”

Guided by its forward-looking vision and strong institutional values, Oman Investment Bank continues to provide investment solutions that respond to the evolving needs of investors and contribute to enhancing the competitiveness of Oman’s economy. The Bank remains committed to supporting the Sultanate’s position as a leading regional hub for investment and economic cooperation, anchored on principles of integrity, trust, transparency, and excellence.
