Oman Investment Bank Honoured as 'Best New Bank for Cross-Border Financial Service – Oman 2025' at International Business Magazine Awards

Oman Investment Bank has been recognised as the Best New Bank for Cross-Border Financial Service, Oman 2025 at the International Business Magazine Awards in recognition of the bank's expanding role in enabling seamless financial connectivity and supporting clients' regional and international ambitions.

Hosted by International Business Magazine, a renowned global publication recognised for spotlighting excellence across the financial and business landscape, the annual gathering brings together leading institutions to celebrate innovation, performance, and sector leadership.

This recognition reflects the bank's continued progress in strengthening its international offering across advisory, capital markets, trade finance, and transaction banking. Through these capabilities, it supports cross-market integration and facilitates investment opportunities across major regional corridors.

Commenting on the award, Mohamed Al Habsi, Acting Chief Executive Officer, said: "We are proud to receive this recognition. It reinforces our commitment to supporting clients' growth across borders with solutions that are innovative, reliable, and designed to create lasting value."

As the bank continues to expand its footprint, it remains focused on contributing to Oman Vision 2040 by advancing financial innovation, supporting economic diversification, and enhancing the Sultanate's position as a gateway to regional and international markets.
